Adjunct Faculty Master of Science in Yoga Therapy

Position Available: Immediately

Post Date: 06/07/13

End Date: Open Until Filled

For best consideration apply by June 28, 2013

Maryland University of Integrative Health (formerly Tai Sophia Institute) is the leading academic institution for integrative health in the nation. For nearly 40 years, MUIH has educated and informed leaders in health and wellness through transformative and relationship-centered programs that draw from contemporary science and traditional wisdom. MUIH offers graduate degrees and certificates in a wide range of wellness fields, as well as programs for professional and personal development. MUIH's on-site Natural Care Center offers compassionate and affordable healthcare from student interns and professional practitioners.

Maryland University of Integrative Health is currently conducting a search for adjunct faculty members to teach in its new Master of Science in Yoga Therapy program. The program has been developed in accordance with the Educational Standards for Training of Yoga Therapists released in 2012 by The International Association of Yoga Therapists (IAYT). The curriculum is designed to teach students from a diverse background of yoga styles how to apply yoga as a therapeutic modality.

Responsibilities/Duties

Responsibilities/duties include, but are not limited to:

- Teaching in one or more of the following Yoga Therapy subjects:
  - Traditional yoga perspective (e.g., Theoretical Foundations for Yoga Therapy, Yoga-Based Behavioral Change, Breath and Health, Using Yoga to Support the Mind and Spirit, Therapeutic Relationship and Client Education)
  - Integrative science perspective (e.g., Biomedicine and the Body Structure, Anatomy of Movement, Physiology and Pathophysiology, Mental Health and Mind Body Science)
- Course development including syllabus creation, lesson plans, and assessments appropriate for graduate level coursework (i.e., incorporating critical thinking and information literacy)
- Participating in program related events as appropriate
- Assessing student learning outcomes
- Grading and reviewing assignments
- Monitoring student progress and grades
- Preparing and duplicating student materials
- Collaborating with the Program Director
- Participating in faculty meetings
- Being available for individual coaching/advising of students as required
- Performing other duties as assigned
