

Type of Opportunity: Acupuncture

Location: New York, NY

Details:

For sale is a growing New York City boutique acupuncture practice with established educated and affluent client base. We are operating from a beautiful wellness center in SoHo sharing waiting room with other holistic practitioners. Owner is relocating but will stay for a month to train and help with transition. This is a cash business with no receivables operated by one acupuncturist using 1 treatment room. There is no billing as payments are made at the time of the session. As a courtesy, insurance claims are filed for clients who have out of network coverage. Practice has about 100 files seeing around 15 patients a week paying an averaging of $150 to $250 per session on a 3 day work week.

Collecting $110,000. No overhead except monthly rent of $1500. Asking price is $55,000.

We are looking for NCCAOM Certified acupuncturist. Bodywork background is a huge plus but not required. More details available upon request. Serious inquiries only.
